In case of any Board member or corporate officer disclosed conflict, the Board (absent the member in question if needed), determines how to resolve the conflict; including: (1) whether the Board member or corporate officer should be removed from the discussion of the matter; and (2) whether the relationship with the individual or entity presenting the conflict should be terminated.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15a:

In early 2024, NatureServe conducted a review of CEO and Executive Director compensation as part of its commitment to nonprofit best practices and responsible stewardship. Guided by the organization's internal Compensation Increase Framework, this review included an evaluation of market data from peer nonprofits and executive compensation surveys to ensure salaries remained reasonable and aligned with industry standards. A recommended adjustment was presented to the Executive Committee, composed entirely of independent directors, which considered the data alongside organizational performance and financial health. Their deliberations and recommendation were documented in accordance with IRS guidelines for establishing reasonable compensation.

The Executive Committee's recommendation was then reviewed and formally approved by the independent members of the full Board of Directors. NatureServe also applies this compensation framework to other key staff, using current market data and performance-based criteria to guide decisions around salary adjustments and cost-of-living increases. All compensation decisions are carefully documented, reflecting the organization's commitment to transparency, fairness, and sound governance practices.
